

Benefits of Hercudet® in Construction Blasting

Thomas C. Jones
Technical Sales Representative
Hercules Incorporated
Naperville, IL 60566

Abstract

The purpose of this paper is to disseminate new information for nonelectric blasting in trenching and construction work. The presentation is not designed or intended to discredit conventional electric detonators or use of MS connectors and cord. Its sole purpose is to inform the S.E.E. of new and exciting benefits realized by the use of the Hercudet non-electric system in the construction industry.