

"A CONCENTRATED VIEW OF DRILLING AND BLASTING IN SOUTH FLORIDA"

Ron Fish, Miramar Rock
Cherokee Stone Div. of Davison Minerals
Herman Bowman, Retired Broward County Agent
Randy Tolliver, Ensign-Bickford

ABSTRACT

Drilling and blasting in open pits is very unique in Southern Florida. Crushed limestone, the state's most abundant mineral resource, is retrieved from the bottoms of huge open pits that are completely inundated with fresh water. It is this industry that makes southern Florida the fastest growing area in the United States.